LOCATION

The property is situated on the corner of Barnbygate and Bede House Lane in the heart of Newark-on-Trent close to the Newark College Site.

Newark is a popular market town with a population of approximately 35,000 people. Nearby centres include Lincoln, 20 miles to the north east, Mansfield, 20 miles to the west, and Nottingham, 21 miles to the south west.

Newark offers good connectivity with the A1 trunk road located approximately 1.5 miles east of the subject premises and the dualled A46 located west of the subject premises highly accessed to Leicester and beyond to the M1.

DESCRIPTION

Methodist Church

The property comprises an existing place of worship, opened in 1847 and is constructed of brick elevations beneath a pitched and tiled roof.

The Methodist Church itself benefits from two pedestrian access points off Barnby Gate leading to a central foyer and the two staircases. The foyer is currently arranged to provide an entrance and associated kitchenette, with the right stairwell housing a male, female and disabled WC, and the left stairwell housing a kitchenette.

The main hall of worship is partitioned by way of feature wood and glass partitioning and double doors leading into the hall of worship, which has a height of 11.3m to the ceiling and 4m to the underside of the balcony. The ground floor benefits from carpeted finishes with plastered and painted elevations in the Ministers office and further storage available to the rear.

The Former School Rooms

Adjacent to the place of worship is a two-storey brick built structure beneath a pitch and tiled roof known as the School Rooms, which has had a number of uses over the years, but it has most recently been used as offices / consultancy rooms with a large full-height hall to the rear.

Access to the School Rooms is available from the front elevation of the building, along with a link currently in situ to the main hall of worship. The School Rooms are currently arranged to provide a range of cellular offices and storage rooms with associated WC and kitchen facilities.

2 Bede House Lane

2 Bede House Lane comprises a three-storey residential property arranged over ground, first and second floors to the rear of the Place of Worship.. The ground floor provides a lounge (where the front door enters in to) and a kitchen which leads to a small rear courtyard. The two upper floors provide three bedrooms and a bathroom.

TENURE

The freehold interest in the subject premises is to be sold.

Consideration would be given to selling the School Rooms and Place of Worship/Cottage separately. Further information is available from the Agent.
